A Note From the Director

The title A New Dawn encapsulates the transformative journey of the People's Chorus, a choir that has evolved from its modest beginnings as the Parkland College Chamber Singers into a thriving, independent ensemble with over 75 passionate singers. This title reflects the spirit of renewal and growth that defines both the choir's history and its future. Like the break of a new day, A New Dawn symbolizes the birth of something fresh and vibrant, filled with promise and possibilities. It signifies the journey of a community brought together through the power of music—an inclusive, non-auditioned group that welcomes all, yet reaches impressive levels of musical achievement.

This theme resonates throughout the concert program, where each piece carries its own message of rebirth, hope, and the dawning of beauty. Elaine Hagenberg's Alleluia is a powerful expression of joy and gratitude, its soaring melodies and lush harmonies embodying a sense of spiritual renewal and awakening. This same energy is echoed in B. E. Boykin's Holding the Light, a work that speaks of perseverance through darkness and the ability to emerge stronger, bathed in new light. Together, these two pieces represent the strength and spirit of the People's Chorus—a group that has transformed from a small choir into a major artistic force in Champaign Urbana, bringing light to those around it.

In Ola Gjeilo's Ubi Caritas, the audience is invited to experience a timeless message of love and compassion. Its serene, almost otherworldly tones connect the present to the past, linking the new with the ancient in a celebration of humanity's enduring ability to create beauty and foster unity. This timelessness is similarly reflected in Katerina Gimon's Apple Tree, a contemplative and evocative piece that draws upon natural imagery to explore ideas of growth, change, and renewal, much like the development of the People's Chorus itself.

Gwyneth Walker's I Thank You God brings this message of renewal to the forefront with its celebration of nature and divine gratitude. It recognizes the beauty of the earth and the blessings of existence, symbolizing a sense of spiritual and personal rebirth that mirrors the choir's journey. Each of these works comes together to form a cohesive narrative of new beginnings, awakening, and the transformative power of music.

A New Dawn not only reflects the fresh start of this concert season but also the hopeful future of the People's Chorus, as it continues to grow and shape the musical landscape of its community. The choir's expansion and achievements serve as a testament to the power of choral music to bring people together, to inspire, and to create something greater than the sum of its parts. With its inclusive spirit, high artistic standards, and commitment to community, the People's Chorus represents the dawning of a new era for choral music in Champaign Urbana, where everyone has a voice, and every voice contributes to the light.

LYRICS

Alleluia

Music by Elaine Hagenberg
Text by Saint Augustine

All shall be Amen and Alleluia.
We shall rest and we shall see.
We shall see and we shall know.
We shall know and we shall love.
Behold our end which is no end.

Ubi Caritas

Music by Ola Gjeilo

Where charity and love are, God is there.
The love of Christ has gathered us together.
Let us rejoice and be glad in it.
Let us revere and love the living God.
And from a sincere heart let us love one another.
Amen

I Thank You God

Music by Gwyneth Walker
Text by E.E. Cummings

I thank You God for most this amazing day:
for the leaping greenly spirits of trees
and the blue true dream of sky;
and for everything which is natural which is infinite
which is yes,
I thank You God, I thank You God,
I thank You God, I thank you God
for most this amazing day.
I who have died am alive again today.
And this is the sun's birthday;
this is the birthday of life and love and wings:
and of the gay great happening illimitably earth.
I who have died am alive again today
I thank You God.
How should any human being doubt You?
How should tasting touching any human merely being doubt You?
How should tasting touching hearing seeing breathing any human merely being doubt You?
doubt unimaginable You?
lifted from the no of all nothing, doubt You?
Now the ears of my ears awake.
now the eyes of my eyes are opened.
I thank You God, I thank You God,
I thank you God, I thank You
I who have died am alive again today.
I thank You God, I thank You God,
I thank You God, I thank you God
for most this amazing day.
I thank You God!

LYRICS

Holding the Light

Music by Gwyneth Walker

Text by E.E. Cummings

Gather up whatever is glittering in the gutter,
whatever has tumbled
in the waves or fallen
in fames out of the sky,

for it's not only our hearts that are broken,
but the heart
of the world as well.
Stitch it back together.

Make a place where the day speaks to the night
and the earth speaks to the sky.
Whether we created God
or God created us

it all comes down to this:
In our imperfect world
we are meant to repair
and stitch together
what beauty there is, stitch it with compassion and wire.

See how everything
we have made gathers
the light inside itself and overflows? A blessing.

Apple Tree

Words & Music by Aurora Aksnes, Odd

Martin Skaalnse and Magnus Skylstad

Arranged by Katerina Gimon

All of my life I've been hunting.
I've been a girl, I've been a boy.
Digging my feet into the ground like an apple tree.
Wanting to live with a purpose.
Skin is a word, love is not a sin.
People are bad, people are good.
Just like the moon is a stone.
But it's a star when it's dark and how she's hiding.
If you've seen what a heart is, you've seen its color.
If I ever knew how we could guide it,
I would take care of its children, become their mother.
If I ever knew how we could hide it, hide it.

Let her save the world, she is just a girl.
Let him save them all, he is just a boy.
Let her save the world, she is just a girl.
Let him save them all, he is just a boy.

Hunger is quiet if you do it right.
Hunter is loud and predictable,
Scaring away every prey so they are gone
Before the hunter arrives.
Would you be kind and put away your sword?
You cannot cut away what we got.
You cannot kill what we are.
We are not here in physical form.
You've seen where the knife is, its dark location.
If I ever knew how we could fight it,
I would cut into our anger, make pure emotion
If I ever knew how we could hide it, hide it.

Can you carry the weight of mortality?
The explosions around you are your symphony.
